SOCIETY.

Usual Number of June Weddings, but All Very Quiet---The Summer Girl Is Conspicuous by Her Absence---At the Gardens ---Personal Notes.

Dullness and depression have characterized the social atmosphere for the last seven days and from present indications there is little of gayed in store for the coming week. Weddings there have been in the social content of the property of the coming week. Weddings there have been in the property of the property of the coming week. Weddings there have been in the property of the property of the coming week. Weddings there have been in the property of the common of the common of the common of the common of the keeping out of sight with a persistence that is truly remarkable, for up to the present time-and middle summer is now at hand-this gay young person, clad in the latest med of shirt what a persistence that is truly remarkable, for up to the present time-and middle summer is now at hand-this gay young person, clad in the latest med of shirt what persistence that is truly remarkable, for up to the present time-and middle summer is now at hand-this gay young person, clad in the latest med of shirt what persistence that is truly remarkable, for up to the present time of shirt what persistence that is truly remarkable, for up to the present time of shirt what persistence that is truly remarkable, for up to the present time of shirt white the same of the cutdoor places of enterfailment does not call her forth, then the summer of 120 will go down in history ag profile in politic politic

The opening of the new Delmar Garden The opening of the new Delmar Garden last week brought many persons out to the stractive and woodsy-looking spot in the western section of town. On Monday night the audience was large Crowds of persons heard the "Evangeline" performance; and still more were scattered about at tables on the cottage plazzas, strolling on the promenade, or listening to the band under the paylion.

promenade, or listening to the band under the pavilion.

V. Mott Porter brought a party with him, consisting of Miss Harriet Frost, Miss Ja-uet Lee and Miss Frost's escort.

Miss Fanny Bartle came out with Will Bieer, and after the performance remained under the trees to hear the music.

Mrs. Giannini, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krausnick, Miss Koehler, Oscar Miller and Thomas C. Hennings formed one group that enjoyed all the various attractions.

Horace Collins had a party with him in the parquet.

the parquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Fraley were out with their daughter, Mrs. Stix, and several oth-their daughter, Mrs. Stix, and several other friends.

Colonel William Bull had a party of men friends with him on the promenade.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ware and their party saw the petformance, and later sought refreshment at the cottage.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitelaw were on front seats in the parquet and afterwards joined friends in the payllion.
Miss Annie Laurie and her brother, Joe Laurie, were in the audience.
Mr. and Mrs. Bassett Henderson had a large party with them and spent the evening enjoying all the various attractions of the place.
Gordon McNeil brought out friends with him.

him.

Miss Erskine and her escort were in par-

Mins Erskine, and her escort were in parquet seats.

J. T. Tustin, Doctor Shelp and Sam and George Capen, were among the summer widowers who whiled away an hour or two at the garden.

Another party of summer widowers consisted of Sidney and Bert Walker and Duncan Joy, who had in their charge Sam Davis, Alex, Primm, Robert Markham and Dave Walker. The steeplechase formed the chief amusement of these gentlemen, who found much entertainment in watching one another's efforts at riding the wooden horses. The moving staircase aiso came in for a share of their attention, and Mr. Davis proved himself the "best fellow" in the party by walking boildy up and down.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Geserich, Horace Collins, Malvern Clopton, Ferd Ray, Frank Hutchinson, Miss Katherine Walsh, Frank J. Burielgh, Homer Moore, De Mun Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Evill were also among the audience.

Summer opera at the Cave has been attended all week by many well-known persons, who have not yet left town for the summer. On Friday night Mrs. Joseph Lucas chaperoned a double box party given for her guest, Miss Niles of Washington, D. C. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawes, Miss Mary Alice McLaran. Thomas C. Hennings, John H. Boogher and Charles Napton.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krausnick Miss.

and Charles Napton,
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krausnick, Miss Anna Koehler and Oscar Miller occupied one of the right boxes.
Miss Katherine Walsh and F. X. Barada were on the left of the auditorium in a box.
Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Sawyer brought friends with them.
Mr. James O'Neill escerted two young women friends,
Miss Pengrae come with a second

women friends,
Miss Peugnet came with her brother, Ernest Peugnet.
State Senator John W. Drabelle brought a party of friends with him.
Judge Harvey came in for a short time to young people.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leshy, D. L. Rober.
Charles Reber, Harlowe Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Terry, W. Sam Scott. Miss Maude Gunnison and Mr. P. Short were among the listeners.

Special Correspondence of the Sunday Republic.

Occommowoe, Wis., June 28.—A new clubhouse on Main street, between Lac la Belle and Fowler Lake, and distant less than 189 feet from either, is among the results of the improvment now in progress to render possible the internavigation of Lake Oconomowoc and the two other lakes already mentioned. David B. Gould represents the St. Louis cottagers on the committee which has the construction of the new clubhouse in charge. A new pier has just been hulli from the rear of the clubhouse into Lac la Belle, and a similar one will be places in PETOSKEY.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.
We quetoning, Mich., June 29,—We quetonisting is alive with St. Louis people. The Club House will open in a few days.
Mrs. Thomas H. West, Jr., arrived from St. Louis Sunday.
Mr. Wallace Delafield arrived on the 18th, with his family, to remain for the summer.

summer.

The Ferguson cottage, located near the bay, is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Ferguson and Miss Dorothy Collins.

C. K. Selby is stopping at Colonial Hall.

Mrs. H. W. Barnett and maid arrived a

Mrs. S. Ray and maid have arrived.
M. A. Foster and Virginia Foster are assing the summer here, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Betsford arrived a

JAMESTOWN.

SIECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Jamestown, R. I., June 28.—The season bere will hardly get under full swing until after the commencement exercises at the colleges and the glorious Fourth shall have been celebrated. The Republic correspondent spent last Sunday inquiring into the situation, and so far as arrivals are concerned, the cottages are nearly all occupied, the St. Louis colony on the hill making a good showing; but the hotels remain to be filled, and here it is that the younger element looks for its dancing and parlor entertainments, which begin early in July.

The Shorely Hillites have quite a row of private bathing-houses down close to the of private bathing-houses down close to the water and directly in front of the hill. These are used exclusively by St. Louis families, who had them erected late last season. Masters Chester, Alfred and Francis Abeles are summering with their uncle, Mr. James Taussig, at his Shoreby Hill cottage.

Miss Emily Catlin, daughter of Ephron Catlin, has returned from a trip to Hoston to attend class day exercises at Harvard College.

College.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Benoist, who have rented the Kindleberger cottage, take their meals at the Hotel Bay Voyage, as has been their custom for several seasons. The Benoist prize baby of last cathon, is here and looks as though it raight maintain its supremary for many looks.

and looks as though it raight maintain its supremiet for good bodys.

Mr. Knox Taussig and Mr. Robert Abeles were among those from here who attended the Harvard class day exercises.

Mr. G. L. Crawford has had his steam yacht, Sapphire, but into commission for the summer's use. Several carriages and an automobile have arrived for Mr. Crawford's use this summer.

Mr. W. J. King hus arrived for the segmon.

on. Mrs. Annie P. King and her grandson, Mr.

Mr. M. J. King and her grandson, Mr. Barrett Frost, and Mrs. Van Sweringen and mail have arrived at the Bar View Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Wells and family and Lieutenant W. S. Montgomery, who has Just been married, are new arrivals at the Thorndike Hotel. Mr. D. S. Holmes and family are booked to arrive July E. Mr. G. F. Comegys is registered at the Perry House in Newport.

Mrs. David R. Francis has arrived at her new home on Shoreby Hill. The extensive work by the decorators has just been completed, and the furniture was only put in last week. Ex-Governor Francis will not come East until late in the summer.

The St. Louis contingent that lives in cettages on Shoreby Hill and who have thus far arrived are taking their meals at the Shoreby Club, as usual. They comprise the Balleys, the Francises, the Fotters, the Taussigs, the Mallinckrodis, the Davises, the Wickhams and Catlins. New arrivals are expected this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ledlie and son are guests at the Gardner House. Mrs. Ledlic is a daughter of Doctor J. D. Johnson, a well-known cottager.

Miss Holland, who has been visiting Mr. Henry S. Petter on Shoreby Hill, has returned to her home in St. Louis.

The automobile, so popular at Newport is a new feature here, but is being introduced this season, and is destined to become a popular means of transportation over the island.

The people of Jamestown are not a little

Mr. and Mrs. Sim T. Price, with their daughter, and Sim Price. Jr., arrived at Prior Lake this week. They will occupy Sunrise Cottage for the season.

The daughters of the Reverend Doctor Holland of St. Louis, the Misses Theo, and Enis Holland, are guests at Grainwool Hotel, Prior Lake, where they expect to remain for the summer.

Still another guest expected at the hospitable Clark cottage in July is Miss Alice Pettingili, the St. Louis plantst.

Other St. Louisans who will participate in the musical features of entertainment at Prior Lake this summer are Messrs. Ambler, Boothby, Poston and Paul Grace of the St. Louis High School Mandolin Club. They are camping on the upper lake, near the Clark cottage, at Julian Point.

Professor C. A. Preyer of Kansas University and Mrs. Preyer and their children are guests at the Maples, Prior Lake, where they expect to remain for the season.

Among the late arrivals at Lake Park Hotel, Lake Minnetonka, are Mr. Robert Mann Woods and daughter of Jollet, Ill.

Mr. Harry Rubey of Macon City, Mo., was at Lake Minnetonka for a short time The people of Jamestown are not a little disappointed to learn that Mrs. Dewey, mother of the Admiral, has a cottage at Narragansett Pier, where it is feared that the Admiral will be inclined to spend much f his time when at the senshore. LAKE MINNETONKA.

Lake Minnetonka, Minn., June 29.—Hot weather of the most decided character has come on apace in the last two weeks, and

All Eyes Turned Toward Kansas City!

Two Places of Which Kansas City Is Proud-The Great Convention Hall and the Famous Temple of Health -Only Two Blocks Apart.

Thousands of People Will Visit Both of These Celebrated Places Next Week During the National Democratic Convention-The Railroads Make Half Rat: Fare in O der That Everybody Can Attend the Convention and Visit the Temple of Health, the Most Remarkable Institution of the Century.

of which it is typical. Every man, women nd child should see this great All the railroads will make a half-rate f next week, and the hotels and hearding ington and Twelfth streets, which is but ture has stood for years as a refuge, and hope for suffering humanity. No bette of readers of The Republic to Incorporate in their visit to Kansas City and the con vention a visit to this great Temple of Health. Dr. Carson is the greatest of all liv ing healers. He has been spoken of by the most prominent men of all professions this country as the hope of afflicted humanity; health and happiness radiate from every portion of his Temple of Health, in which he heals. Every one comiting to Kansas City can call on Dr. Carson with the absolute assurance that all diseases will be mustered and health restored with out drugs, medicines or surgical operations being used. All will be welcome who visit the great temple.

M. A. Evans, their mother and grand-mother, respectively. Their visit was cut short, however, by the fatal filness of Doc-tor S. B. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hausman of St. Louis arrived at the lake in the beginning of May and will remain until late in the fail. They occapy their new cottage, which is situated on a hill in Excelsior overlooking the lake. Mr. and Mrs. Hausman spend all the time they can on their sallooat.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Udell of St. Louis are here for a month's outling, having ar-rived on June J. They are stopping at the Sampson House, Excelsior, Mr. Udell is tend of fishing, and has made some big catches in bass and nekers!

artches in bass and pickerel.
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rensis, Miss Elsie and catches in bass and plakerel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rensis, Miss Eisle and Lee Reasls of Kansas City, have returned home after an enjoyable visit to Mrs. George West at West Point, Excelsior.

Mr. Auguste B. Ewing's cottage at Casco Point, Spring Park, will not be becupied this year. Messrs, Fred and Charles Ewing expect to pass the summer as usual at Spring Park, but will be the guests of Lewis M. Rumsey, Jr., in the Rumsey cottage.

Lewis M. Rumsey, Jr., and two of his risters, Misses Julia and Marien, with their friend, Miss L. M. Wallace of St. Louis, arrived at the lake on June 29. They came up the river on the steamer Quincy with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rumsey, but the latter being seriously ill on the boat Mrs. Rumsey stopped off with him at Winona, Minn, where he subsequently died. The children arrived at Winona before their father's death on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dunbar of Princeton, Ill., are passing part of their honeymoon at the Hotel La Paul, Excelsior.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hudson of Farmington, Mo., came up to the lake by way of the river a couple of weeks ago, and have been stopping at the White House, Excelsior. They expect to visit other lakes in the Northwest before returning home.

Mrs. Y. T. Muckle of St. Louis has been visiting relatives in Minnapolis and expects to spend a short time at the lake before returning home.

Mr. A. J. Joslin of Aurora, Ill., has been guest in the last week at the Lake Park Hotel, from which he made several fish-enjoyed the making and assing at this re-sort, and has been much benefited by his holiday. Mrs. Foote, with her daughters, Eleanor and Lucy, and son, Horace, will remain at Prior Lake for some time. They are stopping at the Grathwood Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smyth of St. Louis are also at Prior Lake, where they arrived this week, and will occupy Sunrise Cottage for the season.

the season.

Mrs. James E. Clark of St. Louis and two

Mrs. James E, Clurk of St. Louis and two of her daughters, Miss Ella Clark and Mrs.
James A, Bartlett, Jr., and little daughter, departed from St. Louis on the steamer bulsaque several weeks ago, and are now at Prior Lake, where they will occupy their pretty cottage on Julian Point for the summer. Mrs. Bartlett and Miss Clark stopped off at St. Paul for a few days to visit friends before joining their mother at the lake. Mrs. Herbert J. MacGinultic of St.
Louis arrived at Prior Lake last week to pass the Season with her mother at Julian ons the season with her mother at Julian sint. Another daughter of Mrs. Clark's, iss Harriet F. Clark, who has been in New

Also arrive in July, to remain all summer at Prior Lake as a guest in the Clark cotton.

The Great Convention Hall as It Now Appears.

The Phenomenon of the Past Ages Sur-ever made lying piled up in the treatment rooms, that were taken from the poor, suffering mortals who have come here help-

The doctor's success in his own city is a direct contradiction of this proverb: "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country." Hundreds of the best and foremost citizens of Kansas City are padirect contradiction of this proverb: prophet is not without honor save in his lone suffer my woran returning home re-joicing, once nors in series nearth. No-where in this wide world to-day is there to be found any man who has done what br. Onson has fer suffering mankind. If you come to see vira you will find the half has every been rold you about his weather.

imprever bear rold you about his wonder-own country." Hundreds of the best and free a after a few treatments to need them no more. You will meet people here from all tarts of the country who have been restored to health who had abandoned loop. You will see the mother whose helpless child has been cured; the rheumatic sufferer, whose aching jedats and crooked limbs have been restored to a healthy state; the millionaire banker, whose tired brain and trembling limbs no longer bannt him with almost certain piralysis. You will see the paralyzed who have been restored, the weak and long suffering worken returning home refoleing, once mere in perfect health. Nowhere in this wide world to-day is there to be found any man who has done what her comes has for any sirring markind. If you came to see him you will find the half has rever hear told you should like worder.

All those unable to visit Kansas City and who will send their address to Dr. C. H.

of treatment.
All those unable to visit Kansas City and who will send their address to Dr. C. H.

passed by This Modern Wonder. If you come to Kansas City and visit this great Temple of Health you will see almost every conceivable kind of crutch, brace, less and hopeless cripples and gone away foremost citizens of Kansas City are paso have summer visitors to this lake. All hotels are full of St. Louisans.

Some additions to the attractions of Lake Minnetonka this year are the two new club houses recently finished. These are the Lafayette Club-house at Minnetonka Baach and the Ire Yacht Club-house standed on an island in St. Louis Ray. Both club-houses are unique and arristle in their arrangements and appointments.

Among the St. Lauisans who remained in Minnesota last winter are the fatally of Mr. Charles W. Shivel, Mrs. M. A. Evans and Mrs. J. R. Ferguson. Mrs. Evans remained in Excelsion all winter and Mrs. St. Louis sould be lake fish.

Mrs. J. R. Ferguson. Mrs. Evans remained in Excelsion all winter and Mrs. Ferguson has been here for several we ke. Both ladies are stopping at their old headquarters, the Sampson House.

Mrs. J. T. Gill, who, like Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Ferguson, are well known at this resort and always among the first to arrive, departed from St. Louis on June E, coming up the river on the steamer Quiney. Owing to the low state of the water at the time of their trip these ladies enjoyed the novelty of finishing their journey from a point some distance below St. Paul on a dancing barge.

Other St. Louisans who have already been here are Mrs. S. B. Parsons and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Scott E. Parsons. They came in the last part of April to visit Mrs. M. A. Evans, their mother and grandmother, respectively. Their visit was cut short, however, by the fatal filness of Doctors of the Sampson House the past week.

GRIMES PARK.

GRIMES PARK.

At the Grimes Summer Resort and Fish

Eugene Dussuchal, Maymie Schmitt

D. R. Cannon,
D. R. Cannon,
Charles Berkley,
John A. Bush,
H. C. Weber,
W. Watts,
Hugo M. Vollmar,
Arthur Sellner,
Alex A. Geldes,
William Rassener,
A. E. Erker,
John B. Bergen,
Edward Evans,
George A. Hughes,
A. F. Johnson,

Catherine Vonder-heide, Emma Glascock, Jessie Mertin, Nonle Palmer, OCEAN GROVE.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Ocean Grove, N. J., June 28.—To this "Mecca of Methodism" pligring are returning by the thousands for their annual feast of sermon and song. The Camp Meeting Association opened its season's round of services last Sunday when Bishop E. G. Andrews preached the inaugural sermon and the Reverend Charles A. Yatman, fresh from a two-years' evangelistic tour around the world after leading the Ocean Grove young people's meeting for fifteen years, returned to his post and opened the service by having every one of the 2,000 people packed in the Temple shake hands with four of their nearest neighbore.

Bishop John N. Fitzgerald of St. Louis, president of the Camp Meeting Association, is arranging a summer's programme of exceptional interest. An important change will be the lengthening of the annual August camp meeting from ten to sixteen days.

The Reverend Doctor Thomas O'Haalon

days.

The Reverend Doctor Thomas O'Hadlon again leads the big Bible class, which he will organize to-morrow; and the Reverend Thomas Houston, the blind evangelist, will assist at the daily holiness meeting. Professor Tall Mergan will conduct the music, assisted by the Park Sisters, cornetists.

The Alaska is entertaining F. R. Wallace of Joplin, Mo. of Joplin, Me.
Bishop Fitzgerald will remain here until the middle of September. He is occupying a pretty cottage near the camp grounds.

LONG BRANCH.

ocean bluff.

Up at Normandie, David B. Hill has been going surf bathing every day and lounging in the sand, preparatory to starting for Kaneas City.

The Monmouth County Horse Show Association will hold its seventh annual openair exhibition, July 25 and 28 at Hollywood, and $4,000 will be distributed in prizes.

ASBURY PARK. SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.
Asbury Park, N. J., June 28.—This big resort is just starting what looks like the best season since the phenomenal one of 1892. A large crowd is here for the Fourth. The surf-bathing establishments are all open, the cottage colony has all arrived, and the 300 hotels are hustling to take care of the visitors that have flocked here from all parts of the country for a month or two of recreation on the Atlantic's shore.

last summer the principal one is the famous Coleman House, which has built a spacious casino for bails and amateur the atricals. The ocean currents have improved the beach a good deal by piling in the sand so that the descent into deep water is not so steep as it was last year.

"Founder" Bradley has a battle royal on with the "sand-spooners." the sweethcarts who hide away evenings after the lights on the beach are extinguished, in the secluded spots on the sand, inviting for tete-a-tetes. To break up this fun the "Founder" has equipped his policemen with pocket electric lights, which, by pressing a button, they flash at a suspicious-looking dark spot on the beach. The "spooning" contingent is loudly declaiming against the "Founder's" tactics.

George W. Andrews, president of the St. George W. Andrews, president of the St.

George W. Andrews, president of the St. Louis and Southern Rallroad, is snutfing At-lantic ozone on the plazzas of the Mon-mouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Kinch of Clyde, Kas., at the Albemarie, and J. A. Mcin-tyre of St. Louis, at the Monmouth, are among the first visitors from the West this I were season.

WEQUETONSING.

WEQUETONSING.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Wequetonsing, Mich., June 29.—Wequetonsing, Harbor Point, Petoskey and the numerous other resorts around Little Traverse Bay are rapidly assuming that air of festivity which the daily arrival of resorters and the opening of the cottages give these places. Northern Michigan as a summer resort has grown rapidly in favor with Mississippi Valley people, and they are going North earlier cach year.

For many present prospects this season will eclipsed from St. Louis.

May and lift is predecessors. The last of May and lift is louis.

Miss. Ashley D. Scott, with her niece, Miss May Scott, and two maids, departed from St. Louis the first of June, going to Chicago and taking the boat trip North. Mrs. Scott sold her cottage at Wequetonsing last fall and has just completed a very large and handsome summer home on the beach at Wequetonsing near the Roaring Brook property. She expects to have the cottage all in order in a few days, when Miss Mary Semple Scott and her nice, Miss Marian Lindsley, will join her, the entire party remaining until Octoher. Mrs. Scott was one of the first St. Louis women to appreciate the beauties of the Northern Michigan summer. Her family arrives earlier and stays later than any other here.

Another cottage which immediately attracts attention is that of George E. Spear, which is just completed. The situation is exceptionally desirable, being right on the water front and commanding a view of the entire bay. Mr. Spear and his hide, who the family arrives earlier and stays later than any other here.

Another cottage which immediately proper is a Canadian, will pass the season at ferting the control of the cottage for the summer, being among the first to arrive. Owing to the cottage at Rosenda, and family are occupying a cottage at Rosenda, house.

P. B. Little was at Charlevotx the middle of the mouth, looking for summer accommodations for his family, who will arrive in Joly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beers, accompanied by their daughter. Miss Ella Beers, will join the St. Louis contingent at Charlevotx early in July.

Miss Rena Galt, with her young brothers and maid, arrived early to get their cottage in readiness for the rest of the family.

Miss Stella Rayold and Mr. Edward Rayold were among those who took the first ld were among those who took the first brough car to Wequetonsing. Doctor and Mrs. Prewitt, Miss Elizabeth Prewitt and their two sons have been here mer home. Mrs. C. T. Gauss and Mrs. C. W. Bullen family are at Charlevolx. They have rente a cottage for the season and will kee house.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.
Charlevoix, Mich., June 29.—The Belvedere opened June 18.
Mrs. Charles R. Blake, Miss Blake, Eleanor Blake, Miss Blake and Charles R. Blake, Jr., arrived from St. Louis a few days ago and are putting their cottage in order for the summer.
Mrs. G. B. Foster of St. Louis is here for the summer.

The marriage of Mrs. Sueic J. Thacher, daughter of Mrs. W. G. Galllon, to Doctor Jay R. Holton of St. Louis was solemnized last evening at the new home which Doctor Holton has fitted up for his bride, No. 4239 McPherson avenue.

The house was decorated in pink and green, a profusion of palms and smilax festoons used in all the lower rooms. The doorways were portlered with smilax and pink flowers placed in all appropriate conners. During the ceremony, which was performed at 8 o'clock by the Reverend Doctor McKittrick, the bridal couple stood in front of the large south window, which was banked with palms and ferns.

The bride, who is a young widow, was attended by a mail of honor, Miss Grace Hipp, and a bridesmaid, Miss Bessie Scannell. Four little flower girls, Jennie Thacher, daughter of the bride, Marguerite Hoiston, Blanche Scannell and Snow Holton, were also attendents. They stratched nick ton, Elanche Scannell and Snow Holton, were also attendants. They stretched plnk satin ribbons down the length of the parlors for the bridal alsle, and carried double bouquets of pink flowers. Doctor C. H. Peake was the best man.

The bride wore an imported robe of white grenadine-barege, in large open-meshed pattern, over pink silk, the guilmpe and elbow sleeves unlined. Her talle vell was arranged to sweep out to the extremity of the train from the back of the head, and without failing over the face. She carried a boaquet of illies of the valley and wore several jeweled ornaments, a brooch of diamonds at her throat and a diamond butterfly fastening her vell. fly fastening her vell.

The maid of honor was in white Oriental lace over white mousseline, made high with long sleeves, while the bridesmaid wore pink and white organdle. Both carried hou-quets of pink carnations. The little flower quets of pink carnations. The little flower girls all wore frocks of pink organdle and

Mrs. Gallion wors a white organdle gown, Mrs. Gallion wore a white organdle gown, appliqued in black thread-lace medallions, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. Only intimate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. A reception followed until 11 o'clock, when numbers of friends were entertained.

Doctor and Mrs. Holton will not take a wedding journey until later in the summer. They have announced that they will be at home after September 1 at No. 423 McPherson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Slinkard of Kirkwood have announced the engagement of their daughter. Miss Grace Mae Slinkard, to Mr. James Alexander Worthington of Denver,

WOMAN'S CROWNING GLORY

imperial Hair Regenerator, the acknowledged STANDARD HAIR
COLORING for Gray or Blunched Hair. It is clean, absolutely harmless. Permits curling and ahampooing. Colors are fast, detection impossible. Sampla of your hair colored free. Privacy assured.

IMPERIAL CHEMICAL MFG. CO., 22 West 23d St., New York. Sold and applied by M. Peterson, Sc. B'usy, Sold at retail by Raboteau & Co., 714 B'way, and Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., Washington avenue and Sixth street.

F. O'Reilly, of the Cathedral chapel.

Miss Mary J. Evers of St. Charles, Mo., was the bridesmaid, and J. Frank Dugan of St. Louis, the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Dugan have gone north for a lengthy frip. They will live in Salt Lake City.

married on Wednesday, June 27, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Robberson, in Springfield. The house was decorated in palms, roses and lilles. The only attendants were Miss Lydia Robberson and Robert Burns, Jr. The wedding was very quiet, only members of the two families being present. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bogy departed for a Western trip.

Miss Mattie Helmich and John Menges, both of the South Side, were married on Thursday at the home of the bride, Miss Emma Menges, sister of the bridegroom, and Edward Dunn served as bridesmaid and best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Menges have gone for a Western trip.

Christ Church Cathedral was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday evening, the principals being William H. Fish of Virden, Ill., and Miss Florence M. Colby. The bride wore a gown of white organdle, made over white silk and trimmed in white satin over white silk and trimmed in white satin ribbon with white hat. She carried a large shower bouquet of white flowers. After the ceremony, which was performed by Dean Davis, assisted by the Reverend F. W. Cornell, a reception was held at Schuyler Memorial House, where a large number of friends and members of the Hospital Mission and the Girls Friendly Society of the Cathedral, extended congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Fish are to make Carbondale, Ill., their home.

Mr. and Mr. an

Free Book for Women

OO many women do not understand their own physical selves. They suppose that the leading up to motherhood are necessarily accom-panied by dread, depression, discomfort and pain. This belief is radically wrong. The period of gestation, if properly understood, need occasion no worry or be a time of distress. It is simply a sacred duty imposed by Nature for the perpetuation of the race. We have issued a finely illustrated book, written in theplainest language, for the guidance and information of expectant mothers. It is just such a book as every wife ought to have. It tells not only how to avoid the dread, nervousness, sickness and pain of pregnancy, but puts before the world the facts about a most remarkable external liniment called MOTHER'S FRIEND—a remedy which is almost as much needed at that period as is air to health or food to eat. It is sold by druggists for $1 a bottle. & Any married woman may have a free copy of this valuable book by sending her name and address to se se se

THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.